*County
Homeseach*
COMPANY

Relocation
without complication

Relocation is second nature to Britain's leading independent homefinder

We have 24 offices throughout the UK and overseas.

A new address with minimum stress

Whether you're moving one person or a whole company, locally or internationally, being professional homefinders and relocation specialists, The County Homeseach Company makes every move as trouble-free as possible for all concerned.

Relocation can be the most stressful of times for families, which is why we take great care to manage every detail of every move effectively and sympathetically, allowing staff to concentrate on their work and everyone to get on with their lives.

Similarly, we take the pressure off HR departments, by ensuring everything is kept within budget and managed to the highest professional standards.

Working with companies as diverse as Unilever, HSBC, IBM, Rolls Royce and Walt Disney, we've got all the experience and expertise it takes to provide the best bespoke service in the country. This includes:

- Area orientations
- Homefinding trips
- School search
- Property preview services
- Lease or purchase negotiation
- Settling in services
- Tenancy management
- Expense management
- Property management

A more accommodating service

Choosing The County Homesearch Company for your relocation is always a better move. As the country's largest independent homefinders, with 24 offices throughout the UK, we boast an extensive knowledge of regional and national property markets.

Equally important, we also possess an enviable 20+ year's track record of successfully providing relocation solutions, which tick all the boxes of even the most exacting home-finding briefs.

Over the years, our award-winning service and consistently high standards* might explain why, today, we work for many of the world's most renowned global mobility specialists, like, Ernst & Young and Cartus.

As a result of our more accommodating service, we are frequently asked to contribute to national and international press articles about relocation and property markets.

We are ISO9001 accredited and hold the EuRA Quality Seal*

No two moves are ever the same

If we've learnt anything in two decades, it's never to assume. Every move is different - we know that, which is why we're ready to hear about your specific needs and any special considerations from day one. We can work whichever way suits you - supplementing your in-house services, or working on our own, to plan, coordinate and effect the smoothest move possible.
